Kingdom is a 2025 Indian Telugu-language spy action thriller film written and directed by Gowtam Tinnanuri. The film is produced by Naga Vamsi and Sai Soujanya under the banners of Sithara Entertainments and Fortune Four Cinemas. The film stars Vijay Deverakonda alongside Satyadev and Bhagyashri Borse.

Release date: August 12, 2025 (India)

Director: Gowtham Tinnanuri

Starring: Vijay Deverakonda; Satyadev; Bhagyashri Borse

Music composed by: Anirudh Ravichander

Producers: Suryadevara Naga Vamsi, Sai Soujanya

Language: Telugu

Kingdom marks the return of Vijay Deverakonda in a role that blends action, intensity, and emotional depth. Directed by Gowtam Tinnanuri, the film is set against a high-stakes socio-political backdrop and explores the journey of a common man who dares to challenge an unjust system. Bhagyashri Borse makes a striking debut as the female lead, bringing nuance and chemistry to the screen. Earlier the makers had released the trailer for the film which received great responses from the audiences.

Kingdom has been in the spotlight since its announcement. The film's release saw several delays—from March to May, then July 4—before finally locking July 31 as the big day. With Anirudh Ravichander's music enhancing the film's emotional and mass appeal, and visually compelling cinematography by Girish Gangadharan and Jomon T. John, Kingdom offers a powerful mix of style and substance. The trailer and promotional content built strong anticipation, with fans hailing it as Vijay Deverakonda's much-awaited comeback. With the stage set for a grand box office opening, Kingdom is expected to make a significant impact both commercially and critically. SS Karthikeya

Tweeted, "Finally the wait for #Kingdom is over... Can already feel everything this journey has been through. Sending nothing but love to this lovely team and rooting big for you @TheDeverakonda."

Fan praise for Anirudh's BGM and Vijay's mass appeal in 'Kingdom'

Fans are raving about 'Kingdom' explosive first half, calling Anirudh Ravichander's background music pure madness for its energy and impact. Vijay Deverakonda's mass screen presence commands attention, while the action sequences—especially in the pre-climax and climax—are top-notch and thrilling. The second half's boat sequence adds a unique dynamic, rounding out a blockbuster experience that's intense and engaging.

Mollywood's Venky Wins Telugu Hearts

Malayalam actor Venkitesh—fondly known as Venky—delivered a soul-stirring and high-energy speech at the pre-release event of Kingdom, leaving the Telugu audience emotional and inspired. Speaking in fluent Telugu, Venky recalled his humble beginnings, saying, "This is the first time I've seen such a massive stage and crowd. I'm from Kerala, and it took me nine years to get here." The crowd roared in support as he shared that Kingdom is the first movie where a caravan door was opened for him, a moment he never imagined in his earlier days of doing small roles in Malayalam cinema.

A technically brilliant film - Twitter review

A Twitter user wrote, "A technically brilliant film with proper story telling makes wonders on the screen. While the initial second half lacks the punch and takes its own sweet time, performances hook you to the screen. Overall an excellent and full satisfactory movie in 2025."

Ram Charan & Kingdom: Just a Rumour, Says Producer

For weeks now, speculation has been swirling that Kingdom, starring Vijay Deverakonda, was originally written with Ram Charan in mind. Multiple reports claimed that director Gowtam Tinnanuri had approached the RRR star with the script during the making of Acharya, and that production was to begin once Charan wrapped up his commitments. But now, producer Naga Vamsi has addressed the rumour head-on. In an interview with 123 Telugu, he clarified that the script discussed with Ram Charan was completely different and had no connection to Kingdom. So, while the rumours sparked curiosity, they appear to have no basis in fact.

Twitter review - One-note, predictable & flat

One mixed review for the film reads, "AH MAN SO UNDERWHELMING. #Kingdom is one-note, predictable & flat. Writing & execution fails big-time, genuinely no wow or high moments, it always feels just okay. VD's look & performance is great. Another 'world', 'saviour' 'wait for part 2' template. Expected so much more."

A strong First Half Followed by an Above Average Second Half - Twitter review

One Twitter user wrote, "#Kingdom: A strong First Half Followed by an Above Average Second Half. #VijayDeverakonda Delivers one of his Best Performances. Venky also Shines in his Role. #Anirudh's BGM is Top notch and Elevates Many Scenes. Overall Not perfect, but has its Strengths."

Kingdom is a total blockbuster - Twitter review

One Twitter review reads, "#Kingdom is a total blockbuster. Vijay Deverakonda shines in the lead the director delivers a strong story Satyadev adds depth and Anirudh's music is fire. 4.5/5 – Must watch?????????????"

#BlockBusterKingdom."

Vijay Deverakonda Roars Back with 'Kingdom'

Kingdom has already sold its theatrical rights for Rs 54 crore. Industry insiders estimate the film needs to gross over Rs 108 crore worldwide to break even. The current pace of advance sales suggests the film might cross Rs 15–20 crore before the first show, setting the stage for what could be Vijay Deverakonda's biggest opening yet. If it holds steady beyond Day 1, Kingdom might just give the star his second Rs 100 crore grosser after Geetha Govindam—and finally the comeback his fans have been waiting for.

Brotherhood, Grit, and a Promising Box Office Ride

Touted as a gangster drama rooted in the story of brotherhood, Kingdom explores intense relationships under pressure, layered with action, emotion, and powerful music by Anirudh Ravichander. The film has all the ingredients for a commercial hit. Shot in both Tamil and Telugu, Kingdom is expected to perform strongly in both languages, with expectations running sky-high among trade circles. With the cast, crew, and fans fully behind the project, the stage is set for Vijay Deverakonda to roar back into the blockbuster zone.

From Local Buzz to Global Reach

The craze isn't confined to India. Global pre-sales have picked up steam, with international territories also showing strong interest. Top ticketing platforms across regions are recording a steady surge in demand, proving Vijay Deverakonda's appeal beyond borders. Responding to the excitement, the makers have decided to host grand premiere shows on Thursday (July 31), adding more anticipation ahead of its official release. The trailer, which dropped earlier this month, only amplified the frenzy, drawing praise for its gritty visuals and emotionally charged storytelling.

Over 1 Lakh Tickets Sold in 24 Hours

The excitement around Kingdom is reaching a fever pitch as fans gear up to welcome Vijay Deverakonda back to the big screen. The actor, who was last seen in Family Star and made a cameo in Kalki 2898 AD, is now returning in full force with Kingdom, a high-octane emotional action drama directed by Gowtam Tinnanuri. Fans, fondly known as "VD Army", have shown unwavering loyalty—over 1,00,000 tickets were reportedly sold within just 24 hours of advance bookings going live. This overwhelming response has turned Kingdom into one of the most talked-about releases in recent months.

SS Karthikeya - Finally the wait is over

SS Karthikeya was all excited for 'Kingdom' as he Tweeted, "Finally the wait for #Kingdom is over... Can already feel everything this journey has been through. Sending nothing but love to this lovely team and rooting big for you @TheDeverakonda, this one is surely a winner! @Gowtam19 is all set to move us deeply, and with @Vamsi84 bro backing it, a blockbuster is already in hand. Can't wait to feel the soul @anirudhofficial added to this film. Watching it tomorrow... go well guys!"

This is true love for cinema - Dulquer Salmaan

Dulquer Salmaan showed his support for Vijay's film as he reacted to Nani's recent Tweet. DQ wrote, "This is true love for cinema ! Lots of love to you Nani bro ! Wishing all films do exceptionally well starting this weekend with Vijays #Kingdom @NameisNani @TheDeverakonda"

I have faith we will live up to all your love - Vijay Deverakonda

Vijay Deverakonda took to his social media and penned a note that read, "Repu.Tomorrow. I have faith we will live up to all your love ❤️ and give you something special. Lots of love, Vijay."

Kingdom follows the journey of a determined and principled young man, played by Vijay Deverakonda, who rises from humble beginnings to challenge a corrupt and broken system. Set in a world where power is monopolized by a few, he stands as a beacon of hope for the oppressed, choosing the path of righteousness over compromise.

Bhagyashri Borse plays the female lead who stands by him, offering strength and emotional depth to his crusade.

Directed by Gowtam Tinnanuri, Kingdom is not just a tale of rebellion, it is a call for justice, loyalty, and integrity in an increasingly fractured world. The film dives deep into the psyche of a man driven by purpose. Packed with intense drama, powerful dialogues, and stirring music by Anirudh Ravichander, Kingdom promises an unforgettable cinematic experience. The movie explores themes of identity, duty, and redemption.
